'Hjemmefronten' (The Home Front) No. 5, 1943

"News from occupied Poland.

THE WARSAW GHETTO WAS ONE HUGE FORTRESS. During the first days of July, the Germans are said to have overcome the resistance in the ghetto in Warsaw. The resistance started on April 19 against the German SA and SS, reinforced by regular troops. The ghetto was exposed to numerous air attacks and was shelled by heavy artillery, but in spite of this the Germans still encountered strong resistance, when they undertook the last onslaught on the destroyed houses."
